

Special Education MAT
2018-2019 Student Learning Outcomes

Outcome	Assessment Methods
1 All MAT teacher candidates will pass two special education Praxis examinations that required for special education licensure in South Carolina. First, all teacher candidates must pass the "Special Education: Core Knowledge and Applications" test (#5354). Second, each teacher candidate will pass one of the appropriate tests that corresponds to his/her disability area focus (either Emotional Disability [#5372], Learning Disability [#5383], or Mental Disability [#5322]).	Praxis exams
2 MAT teacher candidates must demonstrate the ability to plan and implement research-based instruction for students with disabilities. Teacher candidates will demonstrate an increase their ability to provide effective instruction as they progress through their programs of study.	Candidate Work Sample evaluated with rubric ADEPT performance standards evaluated with rubric
3 Teacher candidates in the Special Education MAT Program will demonstrate competence in managing behavior in classrooms designed for students with various disabilities.	Classroom Management System project evaluated with rubric ADEPT performance standards evaluated with rubric