

Teaching, Learning, and Advocacy Med
2018-2019 Student Learning Outcomes

Outcome	Assessment Methods
1 MTLA students will develop skills to analyze how theory and practice intersect.	Capstone project evaluated with rubric
2 MTLA students will develop research skills to enable the student to conduct, interpret, and create well-written reports.	Literature review evaluated with rubric
3 MTLA students will analyze policy to identify how it is used to inform practice and its implications across the profession, classroom and community.	Capstone project evaluated with rubric
4 MTLA students will develop skills to advocate for families, students and communities.	Research proposal evaluated with rubric
5 MTLA students will use reflective practices as a tool to increase self-assessment and the ongoing practice of learning and collaboration.	Capstone project evaluated with rubric
	Policy paper evaluated with rubric
	Advocacy plan within capstone project evaluated with rubric
	Human Performance Portfolio evaluated with rubric
	Education report evaluated with rubric